

Season 3 Episode 9

Ultraverse Data Breach

Jason and Mason go to a convenience store and they look through magazines, VHS tapes, and other things for sale at the store. Jason looks at a magazine and he said, "Look, the new Star Crasher VII is out." Mason said, "They make everything in newspapers look better than it actually is. It is a big scam. Just about everything in this store is a big scam. I only come here to buy batteries since the ones at the grocery store are overpriced." Mason grabs some batteries and he goes to buy them and the clerk said, "I shall not sell these to you." Mason said, "What do you mean?" The clerk said, "You mocked the store. I am not allowed to sell products to people that mock my store." Mason said, "I come here almost every week to buy batteries for my new gadgets." The clerk said, "I have ran this store for over ten years now and I have never seen you before." Mason said, "You would sell me batteries all the time. You even gave me a discount on a capacitor set you were selling." The clerk said, "I have no idea what you are talking about." The clerk loads up a shot gun and he said, "Leave now or I will blow your brains out." Mason said, "Let's get out of this crap store."

Jason and Mason walk down the street and Jason said, "What was with that guy? He is usually very swell around you." Mason said, "Beats me. Something is clearly up with him." Jason and Mason enter their street and they see cop cars are everywhere blocking the street and they are surrounding Jason and Mason's property. Jason and Mason's eyes go big. Mason goes up to the lead cop and he said, "What is the meaning of this?" The lead cop said, "We got some complaints of a lab that suddenly appeared out of nowhere. We have it blocked off and some people are going to inspect it." Mason said, "That's my lab. It's been located there for years." The lead cop said, "I've been patrolling these streets for years and I have never seen that lab before. I have never even seen you before either. Are you an alien?" Mason said, "That is my lab and I can prove it." The cop said, "I don't care. If the lab is yours, we need to take you in for some questioning." The cop and other cops pull out handcuffs. Mason grabs onto Jason's arm and they run away from the cops and they lock themselves in a phone booth across the street from the lab.

Mason said, "I never used this before but now is a perfect time." Mason lifts the phone off the receiver and he dials a combination of buttons. The floor opens and Jason and Mason slide down a chute and they get sucked underground and they pop out in Mason's lab. Jason said, "This is scarring me. What could be happening?" Mason said, "We are about to find out." Mason turns on his computer and he looks at his files and data. Mason said, "All my files appear to be intact." Jason finds Orbot and he said, "Orbot, do you know what's going on?" Orbot said, "How would I know. I don't actively connect to the internet." Mason searches the internet. Mason said, "There doesn't seem to be anything out of the normal here. Everything looks in place." Jason said, "But no one knows who we are." Mason said, "Orbot, do you know who we are?" Orbot said, "Of course I know who you are. You are Jason and Mason. You built me years ago, Mason. I have lived in this lab under your command for years." Mason said, "Orbot seems to remember us and all my digital files seem to be intact. Whatever happened must have only effected the memories of organic people." Jason said, "How come we still remember each other?" Mason said, "That's a good question."

The door to the lab breaks down and the SWAT Team runs in. They aim their weapons at Jason and Mason and they start firing out plasma balls. Mason jumps in his robot mech and he grabs onto the plasma balls and he throws them back at the SWAT members leaving them trapped in energy. Jason jumps in the mech and rides next to Mason. More cops and SWAT members keep bum rushing Mason's lab. Mason flies the mech into the sky. Jason said, "If this thing is everywhere, we might be screwed. We might not have any allies. It might only be a matter of time before..." Mason said, "There is one person we can trust. Who is the one person that believes all the bizarre anomalies we speak of when no one else does?" Jason and Mason give looks that suggest they have an idea.

Jason and Mason go to the park and they find Captain Fusion's lair. Jason stands in front of the box and it scans Jason's DNA. It accepts and shrinks Jason and brings Jason in the box. It does the same for Mason. Jason and Mason are brought to Captain Fusion's black and red lair filled with computers and hi-tech equipment. Captain Fusion is sitting at his large chair in front of his main computer. Jason said, "Captain Fusion." Captain Fusion turns around and gives a stern and hostile look to Jason and Mason. Captain Fusion said, "What are you doing here and more importantly, who are you and how did you find my lair?" Mason said, "Captain Fusion. You know who we are. There has been a disturbance in some supernatural force and no one remembers us. Check your computer records. You will see we are telling the truth." Captain Fusion summons robots to come and scan Jason and Mason. The robots connect to his computer and they find records on Captain Fusion's computer that pertain to Jason and Mason. Captain Fusion reads over them and he sees photos of him with Jason and Mason. Captain Fusion said, "I built this computer myself and I know it never lies to me. I guess you are telling the truth. How could something like this happen and how do we fix this?"

Mason said, "There is a place called the Ultraverse. It has been responsible for unusual misfortunes that have occurred in our universe. I think something may have happened there that caused this anomaly." Captain Fusion said, "How do we get to this, Ultraverse?" Mason said, "From what I remember, my archrival, Keith has a device that detects rips and openings in the fabric of our universe. If we can get this thing from Keith, we can use it to find an opening and it may lead us into the Ultraverse." Captain Fusion said, "We will do just that. We need to find this Keith." Jason said, "It is certain he will put up a fight with us. We know that Keith never willingly gives up any of his gadgets without a fight." A TV comes on in Captain Fusion's lair showing DDD News. George Ferrier appears on the screen and he said, "Hello, I am George Ferrier of DDD News. A strange and mysterious lab has suddenly appeared in the backyard of unknown residents in residential San Francisco today. The police and the SWAT Team are searching through the lab. They have found thousands of records of important data that date from several years ago. It is as if the lab was here for years and was not noticed until today. The SWAT Team has engaged to have the contents of the lab destroyed." Mason's eyes go big. George said, "We also believe a Jason and Mason may have a connection with this crime." A photo of Jason and Mason appear on the screen. George said, "If you see these people, trap them and call us." Jason said, "I didn't know hiding in obscurity and coming out of the blue was a crime." Mason said, "It is probably some dumb rule in an old law book somewhere that never got removed." Captain Fusion said, "I will protect you. I have been against all kinds of hostile dangers."

Captain Fusion drives Jason and Mason around in his Fusion Mobile and they spot Keith walking down the street. Mason said, "There's Keith." Captain Fusion follows Keith and Keith walks to the junkyard. Keith looks through garbage and scraps people have thrown out. Mason said, "Here's our chance." Captain Fusion drives into the junkyard and Jason, Mason, and Captain Fusion jump out and they surround Keith. Mason said, "I know you have a device that detects anomalies from other universes." Keith said, "How did you know about that?" Jason said, "You don't know us but we know you. We know you are the almighty Keith that reigns superior over all of us. Something has happened and everyone's memory has changed for the worse. We need you to give us your gadget and we can set the timeline right." Keith said, "I have no idea who any of you fools are. I would not give up something like that even if my life depended on it." Captain Fusion grabs a metal bar and he squeezes it making indents in it with his fists." Keith said, "I am really scarred." Keith presses a button on a remote and a black mech robot pops up and Keith jumps in it. Mason takes out a remote and activates it and Mason's mech shows up and Mason jumps in. Mason and Keith battle in the junkyard.

Mason punches Keith's head and Keith uppercuts Mason sending Mason flying backwards. Mason darts into Keith. Mason grabs onto blocks of trash and he throws them at Keith. Keith blocks all of Mason's attacks and Keith keeps getting pushed backwards. Jason and Captain Fusion stand on the side watching the fight. Jason sees an electromagnet and Jason said, "I have an idea." Jason runs for the electromagnet and Jason gets at the controls. Jason moves the magnet over Keith's mech and Jason activates it. Keith flies upwards and gets attracted to the magnet. Mason said, "It's over Keith. Let us have your gadget and we will let you out of this." Keith said, "Never. I never lose to people I just met." Jason deactivates the magnet and Keith's mech falls and gets destroyed. Mason captures Keith. Mason said, "You are taking us to your mansion and we are finding that anomaly detection gadget of yours."

Jason, Mason, and Captain Fusion make Keith go to his mansion and they all follow him right behind. Keith goes to his lab and he finds the gadget. Mason grabs the gadget and Mason said, "Now we can find the doorway to the Ultraverse." Mason uses the gadget and it leads to a painting in Keith's mansion. Just as Jason, Mason, and Captain Fusion leave Keith's view, Keith gets to a phone and Keith said, "SWAT Team. I have what you want." Mason takes the picture off the wall and there is a safe behind it that is locked. Mason said, "Captain Fusion." Captain Fusion uses his right arm to crush the lock and open the safe. They see a swirly vortex in the safe. The SWAT Team barges into Keith's mansion. The lead SWAT member said, "There they are." They open fire on Jason, Mason, and Captain Fusion and they jump into the vortex just a second before they get hit by plasma balls.

Jason, Mason, and Captain Fusion appear in the Ultraverse in Lloyd Barnesworth's apartment. Mason said, "Lloyd Barnesworth made a computer system that altered our universe. There is probably something in here..." Mason goes through the computer system their universe is connected to. Mason said, "This is odd. It looks like it is directing data to an external server at the listed IP address. Mason takes out a notepad and he writes down the IP address. Captain Fusion said, "So this is the Ultraverse? It is not as impressive as I would have guessed." Mason said, "It is a lot more than this. I think we need to get the only Ultraverse expert we know of."

Jason, Mason, and Captain Fusion go to Ultraverse Keith's house. Mason knocks on the door and it opens. Jason, Mason, and Captain Fusion enter the brightly lit and orange and brown house of Ultraverse Keith. Jason, Mason, and Captain Fusion find Ultraverse Keith sitting at a desk and looking over some technological gadget. Ultraverse Keith said, "Jason and Mason. It is a pleasure seeing you again. I know you don't visit me just cause. I know something is up." Jason said, "Something is up. No one in our universe remembers who we are." Mason said, "I checked the computer in Lloyd Barnesworth's apartment and it said it was redirecting data to a server at this IP address." Mason hands Ultraverse Keith the IP address. Ultraverse Keith said, "Fascinating." Ultraverse Keith enters the IP address into his computer. His computer displays a large building the size of a town. Ultraverse Keith said, "The information from your Ultraverse appears to have been connected to a server in this large server building. Someone must have expanded on Lloyd Barnesworth's evil plot. We need to get into that server and disconnect it from your universe. They must also have some way of restoring your universe to how it was before any of the altering happened. We need to get in there and deactivate the server and get the restore data disc. They should have them. I learned about servers like this when I spent a day studying technology in the Ultraverse. I think I know how a place like this must work. I have an idea."

Ultraverse Keith gets a large tractor trailer and he makes fake server computers out of hollow cardboard. Ultraverse Keith said, "We are each going to put on one of these disguises. I will do the talking." Jason, Mason, Captain Fusion, and Ultraverse Keith place on the cardboard servers and they take seats in the tractor trailer. Keith drives the tractor trailer and he drives to the server building. Jason sees a large section of the building is giving off fumes. Jason said, "Why is it giving off fumes?" Ultraverse Keith said, "Servers generate an intense amount of heat. They have a high-powered cooling system. Otherwise, all the computers in the place would melt from all the heat." They get stopped at the main gate. A robotic terminal looks at them and said, "What is your designation number?" Ultraverse Keith said, "It is 56Tr4$gt*." The robotic terminal said, "You may proceed." The gate opens and they enter. Jason said, "How did you do that?" Keith said, "I told you. I studied servers in the Ultraverse. A unique identifier of numbers, letters, and other digits told in an algorithm of eight characters is enough to fool those terminal robots." Keith drives into the main loading section of the server building.

Jason, Mason, Captain Fusion, and Ultraverse Keith throw off their disguises. Mason said, "Where do we go now?" Keith said, "I think I know this place. Follow me." Ultraverse Keith takes the lead. They enter the main server room where they see endless rows of servers all connected and running. Ultraverse Keith stays at the sidelines and he finds a door. They enter the door and they appear in a narrow hall. They walk down the hall and find stairs. They head up the stairs and they are led to a control room. Ultraverse Keith said, "This must be the control room. Jason, Mason, and Captain Fusion study the controls. Mason said, "This computer terminal looks like it controls the security system at the main master control center of the place. This must be a security control center." Mason presses the "off" button on the security controls and the security systems for the main master control center are deactivated for two seconds and they reactivate. Ultraverse Keith said, "It seems as if the security system only stays deactivated for a few seconds at a time. We cannot deactivate it here and make our way to the main master control room. One of us will have to stay here. We will call them when we get there. I suggest someone strong because this place has very few people in it. It is mostly robotic guards which are stronger than most organic guards." Captain Fusion said, "I will stay here." Ultraverse Keith said, "Good. Take this communicator." Ultraverse Keith hands Captain Fusion a monk communicator. Ultraverse Keith said, "We will give you a call on it when we get to the master control center. Be ready for anything." Jason, Mason, and Ultraverse Keith study the map and they find the way to the master control center. They head off.

Jason, Mason, and Ultraverse Keith walk through the servers. Jason said, "There is something oddly creepy and eerie about this place." They walk past a sensor hiding between two servers. A light comes on and guard robots fly out and they surround Jason, Mason, and Ultraverse Keith. Ultraverse Keith draws out his sword and he slashes down one of the robots. The other robots attack them. Jason does a kung fu chop at one of the robots and it hurts his hand causing it to beat like a heart. Mason takes out a deactivator and it sends out a chain and it connects to one of the robots and it deactivates it and it falls and dies. Mason said, "I always wondered when this would come in handy. This is why I always keep a lot of gadgets on me at any given time." Keith fights off the rest of the robots and more come and Keith gets separated from Jason and Mason. Keith said, "Go without me." Jason is stopped and Mason said, "We must let him go." Jason and Mason run away from the robots and they make it to the master control center. Jason said, "We made it. Now we have to call Captain Fusion." Jason takes out the monk communicator and tries to call Captain Fusion.

Captain Fusion is in the security control center and the communicator buzzes. Captain Fusion said, "Looks like they made it." Captain Fusion goes to press the button but his hand gets stopped by security robots. Captain Fusion uses his other hand to punch out the robot in the face. More security robots pour in and Captain Fusion fights them off. Ultraverse Keith is still fighting off security robots and they ditch Keith and they head for Jason and Mason. The security robots take out sharp spikes and they aim them for Jason and Mason. Captain Fusion is being held down by security robots but he manages to break one of his arms free and he presses the deactivate security button a split second before the spike security robots get to Jason and Mason. The door to the master control center opens and Jason and Mason run in and the door closes on the spike security robots.

Jason and Mason hear a voice say, "You came to me. I figured this would happen." Jason and Mason turn around and they see a computer system and they see a nerd resting behind a black vertical table. Jason said, "Are you the owner of this server building?" Mason said, "We need everyone in our universe to get their memory back.” The nerd laughs and he said, “I would never let you have such a thing. You are not more important than all the memories of people from other universes.” Jason said, “You stole memories from people in other universes too? Why would you do such a sick thing?” The nerd said, “I was to be the greatest mind in the Ultraverse. I researched all the great brainiacs in all the universes in the Ultraverse and I stole their memory and I learned what they knew. I kept all of it and because it was taking up so much space. I needed a server to keep it all. I became so rich inventing new things with my knowledge that I built this entire building. I see why Lloyd Barnesworth was jealous of you. I am finishing what he started.” The nerd presses a button and robot arms appear from the side of the black table and the black table forms into black armor that wraps around the nerd. Mason tries using his deactivator but the nerd uses his robot arms and it grabs onto the deactivator chain and he destroys Mason’s deactivator. The nerd grabs onto Mason with all four of his robotic arms. Mason yells, “Jason! Get help!” Jason said, “What do I do?” Jason tries to run away but the nerd uses two of his arms to block the exit. The nerd said, “There is no way you are getting out of here. I am the greatest in the Ultraverse and you twins are inferior in every single way. You deserve to be treated like criminals.” Jason sees a door on the other side of the room. It has a sign that reads, “Coolant Room.” Jason remembers seeing the fumes earlier and how much heat they deal with. Jason runs on the side of the walls and he uses kung fu skills to dodge the attacking robot arms. Jason quickly opens the door the Coolant Room and enters.

Jason is in the Coolant Room and he sees it is very warm in the room. Jason finds a computer terminal and he gets to the controls of it. Jason sees it is set for “nominal.” Jason uses the touch screen controls and he turns off the cooling. The nerd enters the Coolant Room and he jumps on Jason and he starts fighting with Jason. Jason said, “Where’s your robot arms?” The nerd said, “I never thought anyone would get past my arms.” Jason and the nerd fight. Mason enters the Coolant Room and he uses a plasma ball launcher from one of the security robots and he blasts the nerd with it and he gets stuck in the plasma ball. Jason said, “I think we have defeated the nerd. Did you get the data to restore our universe?” Mason said, “Keith is doing that.” Jason and Mason bring the captured nerd back into the master control center and Keith is at the computer transferring master restore files to a floppy disc. Keith said, “I need to get all the restore files on a floppy disc. Then we can get out of here and I just need to input this data into Lloyd Barnesworth’s computer and your universe will be back to normal.” Jason said, “This nerd took memories from other universes too. That is why he has this large server room.” Keith said, “It looks like all the memory in the servers is from his alterations. The original data does not take a lot of space and it can fit onto a single floppy.” Jason said, “I also turned off the cooling to this place. It is only a matter of time before...” The servers start melting and the building is melting.

Captain Fusion is fighting off more security robots and they melt and stop working. Jason, Mason, Captain Fusion, and Ultraverse Keith regroup and they run out of the melting server building. They escape and the second after they escape, the building collapses and it floods the area with a light brown liquid.

Jason, Mason, Captain Fusion, and Ultraverse Keith are in Lloyd Barnesworth's apartment at their universe. Ultraverse Keith said, "I loaded the original data setting back into your universe. It will be as if the last little bit never happened. Everything should be back to normal." Mason said, "Thanks." Jason said, "What will happen to the nerd?" Keith said, "I brought him in to Ultraverse officials. It is a crime in the Ultraverse to tamper and alter other universes." Jason said, "What about the other people that got their memories stolen?" Keith said, "I have all their known backups on this floppy. Your universe has been victimized twice by Ultraverse criminals now. I will have your universe placed in special protective custody. Your universe should never get victimized by a preventable crime like this." Jason said, "Thanks again for helping us restore our universe." Mason said, "Thank you too." Captain Fusion bows to Ultraverse Keith. Jason, Mason, and Captain Fusion return to their universe.
